PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO AMEND SCHEDULING ORDER

COME NOW the Plaintiffs Stephen Dearth and the Second Amendment Foundation, Inc., by and through undersigned counsel, and move the Court to amend the scheduling order as follows:

1. This is Plaintiffs' first request for an extension of the scheduling order.
2. Defendant has twice moved, with Plaintiffs' consent, to amend the scheduling order.
3. Most recently, Plaintiffs agreed to a one-week extension for the Defendant to file his dispositive motion. Plaintiffs did not seek a commensurate extension for their time to oppose Defendant's motion and reply to the opposition to Plaintiffs' motion, as it was believed that under counsel's then-existing schedule that sufficient time still remained to submit an opposition and reply brief within the original schedule, even with one less week to work on the matter.
4. Since then, however, the press of unanticipated business has rendered counsel's hope for a December 16 filing in this case difficult.

5. After meeting and conferring with Defendant's counsel, Plaintiffs respectfully now move for a two-week extension of time to file their opposition and reply, and a commensurate two-week extension for Defendant's final reply. This motion will not prejudice any party to the case, and is not sought merely for delay but in order that justice may be served.

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiffs respectfully request that their motion for an extension of time be granted. A proposed order is attached hereto.

Dated: December 13, 2011

Respectfully submitted,
